

BIOGRAPHY

Armata is an established 4-piece Thrash Metal band hailing from the western suburbs of Melbourne, Australia. Established in 2015, Armata first introduced themselves with their debut EP Pay To Pray which provided the first glimpse of what would soon develop into a much more defined yet unhinged hybrid of American and European Thrash Metal.

Armata takes influence from bands such as Slayer, Kreator and Exodus. With their ever-increasing presence in Victorian and Australian live music, Armata is drawing in punters with their aggressive riffs and vocal content.

In 2019, Armata had two releases. The first of these, Live in the Forge is a live album which was recorded at the Evelyn Hotel in Fitzroy, Victoria. The second of these is Destiny Awaits, their debut album produced by Bo Remy at Hellfire Sound Studio with artwork by Thrashwolf Design. Armata has teamed up with Hellfire Records Australia for worldwide distribution and promotion.

Armata is:

Dylan Gatt - Lead Vocals / Bass Guitar

Jack Basile - Guitar

REVIEWS

LABEL

“Relentlessly heavy and fun old school Thrash Metal!”

- Jake Sproule, Whoretopsy/Amoeba Quake Events

“Exceptionally well led both on and off stage by frontman Dylan Gatt, Armata are undoubtedly one of the forerunners in the new wave of Aussie Thrash. Ever professional, this hard working quartet's energy is evident in their catalogue of fast paced thrash anthems. With a style likened to that of early Kreator and a hunger to match, Armata is a name that is sure to be a mainstay in the future of Aussie Thrash Metal.

Expect big things!”

- Damien Smith, Megaton Music
